Question for Rosie: No question just a great big THANK YOU for your referral network. We have used many times with great results. We recently contracted with Rick Thompson of Thompson's Drywall Service to repair our bedroom ceiling that had collapsed due to water damage caused by our air conditioner. He was very professional, on time and did an excellent job.

Integrity Air (another great company we have used for 6 years) completed the air conditioning repair and solved the water problem we incurred.

Thank you again for your wonderful service to the community.
