

Julia Drake

Today I called Action for an email address so I could send pics of a bug I thought might be a termite. Lisa gave me hers and within 20 minutes of sending them to her she called back and told me it was some kind of beetle.

What a relief. And what great service! If I ever need it, they'll certainly get my business.

Regards,
Dallas