Question for Rosie: Not a question. I would just like to give Integrity AC a little pat on the back. When they came to install the air conditioner and emptied their truck the front of the house looked like Sanford and Son. The crew moved around like an army of ants and by 5:00 everything looked as tho nothing took place . . I but we had a new air conditioner and gas furnace. A few days later came the follow up inspection. A good job and well appreciated. Would recommend them to anyone. As a matter of fact I have already recommended them to my neighbor.
